RESEARCH ETHICS COMMITTEE

The Research Ethics Committee (REC) holds the responsibility of instilling elevated values, including honesty, integrity, responsibility, and mutual respect for individuals and property, as well as a commitment to human rights. To uphold the highest academic standards, the committee has established guidelines within the framework of the Ideal College of Arts & Sciences ethics policy, specifically aimed at enforcing research ethics among students, scholars, and faculty.

Objectives:

- Formulates the Research Ethics Policy for Ideal College of Arts & Sciences.
- Provides recommendations on the utilization of plagiarism detection software for research carried out by students and faculty.
- Submits reports on any breaches of the Research Ethics Policy or instances of non-compliance with ethical practices by students, faculty, and staff to the principal for necessary actions.
- Offers recommendations for corrective actions in cases of non-compliance with research ethical practices by students, faculty, and staff.
- Proposes amendments to the policy as necessary.
