Enrolment of NCC Cadets Report

The NCC cell at Ideal College of Arts & Sciences (Autonomous), Kakinada, successfully organized the "Enrolment of NCC Cadets" on 23.11.2021. The selection process was conducted entirely on a merit basis, emphasizing the commitment to excellence and discipline within the NCC unit.

The enrolment program witnessed active participation from the NCC wing commanding officer, PL staff, as well as our college NCC-cell ANO/CT and teaching staff. Their involvement played a crucial role in ensuring the smooth and efficient execution of the enrolment procedures.

A total of 54 students from our college participated in the NCC Cadet selections. The candidates underwent a rigorous evaluation process, with emphasis placed on their individual merit and potential contributions to the NCC unit.

The final selection list was officially announced by the NCC wing commanding officer. To facilitate transparency and dissemination of information, the list has been prominently displayed on the college notice board. This step ensures that all concerned parties have access to the relevant information regarding the selected NCC cadets.

The college takes pride in its commitment to fostering a spirit of discipline, leadership, and patriotism among its students through active participation in the NCC. The successful conduct of the "Enrolment of NCC Cadets" reflects the dedication of the college administration, NCC wing, and the participating students towards promoting the values upheld by the National Cadet Corps.

This event marks a significant milestone in the college's ongoing efforts to instil a sense of responsibility and leadership qualities in its students through active engagement in the NCC program. The college looks forward to the continued growth and success of its NCC unit in shaping the character and future of its students.

Report on NCC Cell Activity: Visit to Mother Teresa Old Age Home and Fruit Distribution

Date: 10-12-2021

Venue: Mother Teresa Old Age Home, [Location]

Participants: 18 NCC Cadets from Ideal College of Arts and Sciences (A), Kakinada

Objective:

The NCC Cell of Ideal College of Arts and Sciences (A), Kakinada, organized a community service initiative by visiting the Mother Teresa Old Age Home. The primary goal of the activity was to extend support and companionship to the elderly residents of the home, and to promote a sense of social responsibility among the NCC cadets.

Event Highlights:

Attendance: A total of 18 dedicated NCC cadets participated in the program, displaying enthusiasm and commitment to the cause.

Visit to Mother Teresa Old Age Home: The cadets, under the guidance of NCC instructors, visited the Mother Teresa Old Age Home located in [Location]. The home provides shelter and care to elderly individuals who may be less fortunate or in need of support.

Fruit Distribution: As part of the initiative, the NCC cadets distributed a variety of fresh fruits to the residents. The distribution aimed not only to provide a nutritional boost but also to bring smiles to the faces of the elderly inhabitants.

Interaction and Companionship: The cadets engaged in meaningful conversations and shared moments of companionship with the residents. This interaction was a crucial aspect of the visit, fostering a sense of connection and empathy.

Community Outreach: The event served as a positive representation of the college's commitment to community service and social responsibility. It also emphasized the values instilled in the NCC cadets, promoting a holistic development approach.

Impact and Reflections:

The visit to the Mother Teresa Old Age Home left a lasting impact on both the NCC cadets and the elderly residents. The cadets gained valuable insights into the importance of social service and the challenges faced by the elderly. The residents, in turn, appreciated the gesture of kindness and expressed gratitude for the companionship provided by the young volunteers.

Conclusion:

The NCC Cell's visit to the Mother Teresa Old Age Home was a commendable effort in fostering a sense of compassion and responsibility among the cadets. Such initiatives not only contribute to the well-being of the community but also shape the character of the participating students. The college looks forward to organizing more such community service activities in the future.
