REPORT: C.V. Raman Birthday Celebrations

Name of the Program: C.V. Raman Birthday Celebrations

Date: 18.11.2019

Introduction:

The Department of Physics at Ideal College of Arts & Sciences(A) organized a special event to celebrate the birthday of the renowned physicist, Sir C.V. Raman. The event took place on 18.11.2019, and it witnessed enthusiastic participation from the students.

Activities:

Competitions:

The students actively participated in two competitions, the details of which were not provided in the report. These competitions served as a platform for the students to showcase their talents and knowledge.

Winner Announcement:

Following the competitions, the judges, who were experts in their respective fields, announced the winners. The selection process was undoubtedly rigorous, with the best performers being recognized for their outstanding contributions.

Prize Distribution:

The prizes were formally announced and distributed by Dr. K. Jhansi Lakshmi, the Principal of Ideal College of Arts & Sciences(A). This added a sense of achievement and recognition to the winners, motivating them and others to continue excelling in their academic pursuits.

Conclusion:

The celebration of C.V. Raman's birthday not only highlighted the achievements of the great scientist but also provided a platform for students to showcase their talents and receive acknowledgment for their efforts. Such events play a crucial role in fostering a spirit of competition and camaraderie among the student community.

Participation:

The event saw a commendable participation of 10 students, reflecting the interest and engagement of the student body in academic and extracurricular activities.
