Report on Computer Literacy Day (03.12.2018)

Date: 05.12.2018

The Department of Computer Science at Ideal College of Arts & Sciences(A) organized a successful Computer Literacy Day on 03.12.2018. The event witnessed enthusiastic participation from students who engaged in two competitions. The highlight of the day was the announcement of winners by the judges, followed by the distribution of prizes by the college principal, Smt. S. Padmavathi.

Details of the event:

Name of the Program: Computer Literacy Day
Date: 03.12.2018
Venue: Ideal College of Arts & Sciences(A)

The event was marked by the active involvement of 16 participants who competed in various computer-related activities. The competitions were designed to test and enhance the computer literacy skills of the students.

After a competitive and engaging session, the winners were chosen by the esteemed judges for each competition. The principal, Smt. S. Padmavathi, took the honor of distributing the prizes to the deserving winners. The recognition and appreciation from the principal added to the motivation and encouragement of the participants.

The Department of Computer Science expresses gratitude to all participants, judges, and the principal for making the Computer Literacy Day a resounding success. Such events contribute significantly to fostering a spirit of healthy competition and enhancing the overall computer literacy of the students.

REPORT

Date: 04.12.2019

Name of the Program: Computer Literacy Day

Date: 02.12.2019

The Department of Computer Science at Ideal College of Arts & Sciences(A) celebrated Computer Literacy Day on 02.12.2019. The event aimed to promote and recognize the importance of computer literacy among the students. The day was filled with two engaging competitions, showcasing the talents and skills of the participants.

The participants, consisting of 16 students, displayed enthusiasm and competence throughout the competitions. The first competition tested their practical computer skills, while the second one focused on theoretical knowledge related to computer science.

The competitions were followed by a keen evaluation by the judges, experts in the field of computer science. Their expertise ensured fair judgment and selection of the winners based on merit. The winners were announced, and they were recognized for their outstanding performance and dedication.

The Principal, Dr. K. Jhansi Lakshmi, graced the occasion and distributed the prizes to the winners. His presence added prestige to the event, and his words of encouragement motivated the students to continue their pursuit of computer literacy.

The success of the Computer Literacy Day can be attributed to the collective efforts of the organizing committee, faculty members, and students. Such events play a crucial role in fostering a culture of continuous learning and skill development among the students.

We extend our gratitude to everyone who contributed to the success of the Computer Literacy Day, and we look forward to organizing more such events to promote academic excellence and overall development among the students.

REPORT: E-Fest-2K23

Name of the Program: E-Fest-2K23

The Department of Computer Science at Ideal College of Arts & Sciences(A) successfully organized E-Fest-2K23 on 23rd February 2023. The event witnessed enthusiastic participation from students who actively engaged in the PowerPoint presentation competition. The competition showcased the technical prowess and creative skills of the participants.

Event Highlights:

Competition Focus: The highlight of E-Fest-2K23 was the PowerPoint presentation competition, where students demonstrated their proficiency in creating compelling and informative presentations. The topics covered a wide range of subjects within the field of Computer Science.

Active Participation: A total of 8 students participated in the event, contributing to its success. Their commitment and enthusiasm added vibrancy to the competition.

Judging Panel: A panel of esteemed judges, comprised of experts in the field, evaluated the presentations based on content, creativity, and presentation skills. Their valuable insights played a crucial role in determining the winners.

Prize Distribution: The Principal, Dr. T. Satyanarayana, presided over the event and distributed prizes to the winners. The recognition and appreciation from the principal added significance to the achievements of the participants.

Acknowledgments:

The success of E-Fest-2K23 would not have been possible without the collective effort and support from various individuals and groups. The organizing committee, volunteers, judges, and participants all played vital roles in making the event a memorable one.

The Department of Computer Science extends its gratitude to everyone who contributed to the success of E-Fest-2K23.

Conclusion:

E-Fest-2K23 served as a platform for students to showcase their talents, fostered healthy competition, and promoted a spirit of innovation within the Department of Computer Science. The event not only highlighted the technical skills of the participants but also emphasized the collaborative and vibrant academic culture at Ideal College of Arts & Sciences(A).
